Join us to become part of a nationwide community that cares and makes a difference. We embrace te Tiriti o Waitangi and together work to advance the health and wellbeing of our colleagues, our patients and our communities.

Me haeretahi tātou mō te hauora me te oranga o ngā iwi katoa o Aotearoa.
Let us journey together for the health and wellbeing of the people of Aotearoa.

Who are we?

We are a collective of more than 53,000 people who work in health as registered nurses, enrolled nurses, midwives, health care assistants, caregivers and other kaiawhina. Together we form the leading professional association and registered union for nursing staff in Aotearoa New Zealand.

What do we do?

Together we uplift the health and wellbeing of Aotearoa New Zealand

We have a shared vision of healthy communities and good health outcomes, so we work together to advocate for our patients, our health care system and our profession. We unite to ensure a strong nursing voice is heard whenever decisions are made that impact health. From legislation to policy and standards we actively advocate for enhanced patient care and workforce wellbeing.

Together we advance the profession

The nursing team is the foundation of good health, so we champion and promote nursing in policy, funding, workforce planning and models of care. We do this from a local workplace level right up to a national level. When we speak up together we are heard.

Together we help ensure fairness at work

We believe in workplace justice, so we are the voice of fairness wherever nurses, midwives and caregivers are employed. Together we can ensure everyone has a healthy, safe and fair workplace. We can also help make sure everyone's contributions are fairly and equitably recognised at work with good pay and conditions.

Professional and workplace support and services

As the largest professional health advocacy body in New Zealand, NZNO has the size and the resources to bring you a range of services including trained organisers and delegates in your workplace, professional, industrial and legal services, professional indemnity insurance underwritten by QBE and much more.
