MISSION STATEMENT

The Cancer Nurses College (CNC) promotes excellence in cancer nursing nationally through consultation and advocacy. It provides the strength of a collective nursing voice to promote evidence based clinical practice and equity, while supporting research, education, and cancer nursing workforce development.

OUR ROLE

The CNC encompasses a diverse range of nurses with an interest in the care of people with cancer and their whānau. This area of expertise may include medical and radiation oncology, haematology, paediatrics, surgical oncology, community and rural health, research, education, management, health promotion, and palliative care.

The Cancer Nurses College:

- Promotes innovation and excellence in cancer care
- Provides strategic vision and direction through the annual work plan
- Develops and connects cancer nurses nationally and internationally
- Advocates for cancer nursing workforce development and improvements
- Hosts cancer nursing related special interest groups (SIGS)
- Improves cancer patient outcomes

CNC provides representation on national working groups such as:
