

The 2021 New Zealand Nurses Organisation College of Child and Youth Nurses' Annual Symposium will be held on Friday 24 September 2021 in Christchurch, and we are pleased to announce a Call for Abstracts is now open.

Abstracts need to address the theme:

"Nōu te Ao, e Hika e!: Oh the places you'll go – Empowering nurses for a healthy future".

Keynote Speakers are being confirmed, and there are opportunities for additional presentations on a range of topics that contribute to the professional development of nurses working with children and youth and their parents/caregivers or whānau.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Papers are presented orally with the presenter being allocated 20-30 minutes for presentation and discussion time.

Deadline: Monday 31st May

Word Limit: A maximum of 300 words excluding the title and authors information.

Outcome: Applicants will be notified by Wednesday 9th June 2021 whether their abstract has been accepted/declined. Applicants will need to confirm with conference organisers their acceptance of the abstract offer by Wednesday 7th July 2021.

Travel: NZNO will organise a complimentary conference day registration. Any additional expenses incurred will be the responsibility of the applicant.

FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED

- Contribution to nursing knowledge, practice, systems, healthcare delivery, health service and patient outcomes
- Abstract submitters need to be representative of / speak from a position of experience
- Relevance to Conference and abstract sub-theme
- Professional merit
- Clarity of abstract
- Interest to a nursing audience in New Zealand

All abstracts must be submitted to submissions.ccyn@gmail.com

using the attached template.

Please direct any questions or enquiries regarding the call for abstract to our conference organisers via e-mail to submissions.ccyn@gmail.com

