

AOTEAROA COLLEGE OF DIABETES NURSES

NZNO - STRATEGIC PLAN 2018 - 2023

Our Vision: ACDN NZNO promotes excellence in Diabetes Nursing in New Zealand in accordance with the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi

Our Mission: We aim to promote excellence in Diabetes Nursing throughout New Zealand by developing clinical practice frameworks, policy, education and research in accordance with the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi

To achieve our vision and mission we will focus on:

IMPROVED HEALTH OUTCOMES

by promoting excellence in patient care

- To contribute to and support New Zealand health policy
- To promote collaborative relationships and integration across health services
- To advocate for safe, accessible, patient-centred care in New Zealand
- To reduce health inequalities and improve equity of health outcomes for all New Zealanders

SKILLED NURSES

by contributing to the ongoing professional development of nurses working in diabetes health

- To promote and support Diabetes Nursing professional development
- To promote evidence-based advanced nursing practice within the Diabetes Nursing specialty
- Provide a pathway for nurses working with people with diabetes in alignment with the National Diabetes Nursing Knowledge & Skills Framework
- Provide an accreditation programme which recognizes and encourages developing levels of expertise and leadership

STRONG WORKFORCE

by strengthening nursing workforce planning, sustainability and leadership

- To be the voice for Diabetes Nursing in New Zealand and to raise the critical issues affecting Diabetes Nursing
- To provide the nursing perspective for Diabetes healthcare in New Zealand
- To promote advanced diabetes nursing practice roles across health services
- To influence workforce planning and support safe working practice
- To strengthen the bicultural partnership
- To build membership capacity, capability, competence and participation

EFFECTIVE ORGANISATION

by ensuring ACDN contributes effectively to the wider NZNO vision

- To protect the interests of ACDN members and uphold NZNO values
- To be innovative and responsive to emerging trends affecting Diabetes
- To promote communication directly to and between members on diabetes issues and be responsive to the ACDN membership
- To advocate for and strengthen ACDN's collective voice
- To maintain strong fiscal integrity of ACDN
- To maintain and improve ACDN business and processes
