

Super Early-Bird Special Ends 24 August – Click here to Register

We are excited to invite you to the 2021 College of Emergency Nurses New Zealand (CENNZ) Conference on 5-6 November. It has been 12 years since CENNZ nurses have joined together in Christchurch to celebrate our passion for emergency nursing. Our theme is 'Ready to Respond – Kia Mataara', something emergency nurses embody every day. Our aim is to provide delegates the best possible experience, comprising of presentations by speakers from throughout Aotearoa / New Zealand.

We are excited to be able to bring you a fantastic line-up of speakers. We hope you can join us for the two-day conference. The Super Early-Bird Registration fee $490 +GST for CENNZ members and $590 +GST for non-members include the conference dinner.

Keynote Speakers

- Dr Ashley Bloomfield – Director-General of Health and Chief Executive, Ministry of Health NZ
- Dr Sandra Richardson – Emergency Department Nurse Researcher, Canterbury District Health Board
- Prof Michael Baker MNZM – Epidemiologist, Professor of Public Health, University of Otago
- Prof Dame Juliet Gerrard FRSNZ, HonFRSC, DNZM – Prime Minister's Chief Science, Advisor and Professor of Biological Sciences, University of Auckland

View the CENNZ conference website for the programme and further details.

Call for Abstracts

The organising committee invite submissions for oral presentations and posters. Full details are on the Conference website. Submissions close 2 July.

Our Sponsors

We would like to thank our sponsors for their support.

For further information on sponsorship opportunities, please contact the Conference Organisers.

Follow CENNZ on Facebook and Twitter: @NursingCENNZ