

Conference Award – Kotahitanga 2019

Excellence Award

Purpose:

This award acknowledges an ED nurse for their contribution and dedication to excellence in the emergency department.

This could be awarded to someone who consistently goes above and beyond, who shows dedication, support and positive influence within emergency nursing.

An award granted to an individual in recognition of their dedication and excellence to emergency nursing

Inclusion:

Nominations to be submitted prior to closing date to be considered by the conference committee. Those nominated must either be present at the awards evening or have a colleague present to receive the award.

Nomination submission to be 250 words or less and must include

- Name of person or group being nominated and contact details
- Description of why the person deserves the award
- Name of person completing submission