

Conference Award – Kotahitanga 2019

Innovations Award

Purpose:

This award acknowledges an ED nurse who has been influential with positive change within the department.

This could be awarded to someone who has lead change within the department, has been instrumental in positive change, has started something new within the department that has impacted on either staff or patients.

An award granted to an individual or group in recognition of their positive influence to emergency nursing

Inclusion:

Nominations to be submitted prior to closing date to be considered by the conference committee. Those nominated must either be present at the awards evening or have a colleague present to receive the award.

Nomination submission to be 250 words or less and must include

- Name of person or group being nominated
- Description of why the person deserves the award
- Description of impact on department
- Name of person completing submission