APPENDICES

1. Schedule of Parties
Primary Health Care Multi-Employer Collective Agreement

1. Parties

In accordance with the Employment Relations Act 2000 this collective agreement is made:

BETWEEN:

Employer parties at commencement of this agreement as recorded in Appendix One (The “Employer”)

AND

The New Zealand Nurses Organisation (NZNO) (The “Union”)

2. Coverage and Application

2.1 This is a Multi Employer Collective Agreement (MECA) that is made pursuant to the Employment Relations Act 2000.

This MECA shall apply to all employees who are members of NZNO and who are employed by an employer party to this MECA in the following positions:

Administration Staff
Enrolled Nurses
Medical Receptionists
Midwives
Practice Nurses
Registered Nurses
Registered Nurses/Practice Nurses/Midwives employed in a Coordinator role

2.2 The parties agree that any employee whose work is covered by the coverage clause of this agreement (clause 2.1 above) who is engaged by the employer, and is a NZNO member, shall be entitled to all benefits, and be bound by all of the obligations, under this agreement.

The employers shall follow the requirements of the Employment Relations Act with regard to new employees. The employer shall advise new employees that the employer is a party to the Primary Health Care MECA, that they are able to join NZNO and be covered, and that there is a copy of the agreement available in the workplace.

Employees shall make every endeavour to notify the employer in a timely manner of their union membership.

2.3 Savings: An employee who was covered by the previous MECA and continues to be a member of NZNO and covered by this agreement shall not have their ordinary time (OT) hourly rate reduced by the coming into force of this agreement, unless this is specifically agreed by the parties during the negotiations.

2.4 Existing employees who are covered by the coverage clause of this MECA (clause 2.1) who become NZNO members during the term of the MECA shall, from the date of becoming a union member, be bound by all benefits and obligations relating to employees under this MECA subject to the restrictions set out in the Employment Relations Act 2000.

2.4 Impact on Individual Employment Agreements: Where an employee on an individual employment agreement elects to be bound by this MECA, their previous terms and conditions of employment shall no longer apply unless otherwise agreed between the employee and the employer, or as provided for in this MECA.

2.5 Savings: Nothing in this MECA shall operate so as to reduce the ordinary-time (FT) hourly rate applying to any employee at the date of this MECA coming into force unless specifically agreed between the parties during the negotiations.

2.5 Transition to this agreement: This agreement replaces all previous terms and conditions of employment unless mutually agreed otherwise as specified below.

Where an employee on an individual employment agreement (IEA) joins the NZNO or an employer's employer becomes a party to the MECA and the employee is a member of NZNO, the following shall apply:

- The employee shall cease to be covered by the terms and conditions of the IEA, except for any terms and conditions agreed in writing between the employee and the employer to still apply now that the employee is covered by this collective agreement.
- If the employee's IEA provides for a flat hourly rate, that hourly rate shall be deconstructed to provide for an ordinary hourly rate, overtime, penalty payments, etc. in accordance with this agreement, by agreement between the employer and the employee. Alternately, the employee and the employer can agree upon an all-inclusive salary.
- If the employee's IEA provides for an all-inclusive salary, the agreed all-inclusive salary shall continue to apply to the employee, unless the employee and employer agree on the transition to an ordinary rate.
- If the employee has an ordinary hourly rate and an entitlement to one or more penalty rates for particular times, or some other mix of remuneration rates which is different from that provided for in this agreement, the employer and employee shall deconstruct the rates applicable to provide for an ordinary hourly rate, overtime, penalty payments, etc. in accordance with this agreement, by agreement between the employer and the employee.
- The principles that shall apply to all transitions from an individual employment agreement to this agreement are:
  - The employee shall be advised of the changes as soon as possible if the employee has joined NZNO. This is to ensure that the employee is placed on the MECA and to enable the transition to be resolved promptly and appropriately;
  - Neither party shall be disadvantaged or advantaged by the transition;
  - Agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld;
  - The employee may seek the assistance of NZNO in working through this process;
  - The agreement reached shall be recorded in writing;
  - The provisions of the MECA are the minimum entitlements.

For the avoidance of doubt, an employee who has an all-inclusive annual salary at the time they become covered by the collective agreement shall continue to have that all-inclusive salary unless the employer and employees agree on how the employee shall transition to an ordinary rate.

An employee who has a flat-rate hourly rate at the time they become covered by the collective agreement shall have that flat-rate deconstructed to provide an ordinary hourly rate and 2.6 Non-Waiver Understanding: Failure by either party to enforce any right or obligation with respect to any matter arising in connection with this agreement, shall not constitute a waiver as to that matter, or any other matter, either then or in the future.

2.7 Subsequent employer parties: The parties agree that other employer parties whose core business is the provision of primary healthcare services may become parties to this agreement where the NZNO and the new employer party so agree. Employers who agree to become subsequent parties shall be recorded on a master list compiled by the NZNO and shall be provided to the employer parties on request.

On the date of receipt by NZNO of the completed subsequent parties form the employees who are NZNO members shall be entitled to the benefits conferred by this agreement.

3. Term

3.1 This MECA shall come into force on 21-December-2016[date agreement has been ratified] and expire on 31 August 2019.

4. Variation of this MECA

4.1 The parties may vary this agreement from time to time by written agreement signed by them or by their duly authorised representatives on their behalf (employer advocates and NZNO). Any such variation will take effect as if it were incorporated into this agreement.

4.2 Where a change only impacts one or some of the employer parties, any or all of the provisions of this agreement may be varied by agreement between the affected employer parties and the NZNO. Any such variation will be committed to writing and signed by the parties to the variation. That variation shall only apply to the employers who have agreed to such variation.

4.3 Where a change only impacts one or some of the employees employed by an employer party to this agreement, any of the provisions of this agreement may be varied by agreement between the affected employee(s) and their employer and NZNO. Any such variation will be committed to writing and signed by the employer and the employee(s) affected and NZNO. That variation shall only apply to the employer and employees who have agreed to such variation.

5. Definitions

"Administration staff" means an employee who is wholly or substantially engaged in administration duties.

"Casual employee" means an employee who has no set hours or days of work and who is normally asked to work as and when required. They are employed when there is an overflow of work or a permanent employee is absent. Each engagement undertaken by the casual employee is a stand alone employment arrangement and the employment shall be at an end at the completion of the work required. Nothing in this agreement, either express or implied, requires the employer to offer any employment to any employee, notwithstanding that the employee may be recognised on any list maintained by the employer to assist in obtaining staff.

"Employee" means any person employed by an employer whose position is covered by this MECA.

"Employer" means the relevant employer employing the particular employee.

"Enrolled nurse" has the same meaning as in the Health Practitioners' Competence Assurance Act 2003 and its successors.

"Full time employee" means an employee who works not less than the "ordinary" or "normal" hours set out under "hours of work" in this MECA.

"Medical Receptionist" means a person who is employed to undertake medical receptionist duties at the medical practice.

"Midwife" means a person who is qualified as a midwife under the Health Practitioners' Competence Assurance Act 2003 and its successors.

"Night Duty" means any duty in which part of the duty is worked between midnight and 5:00am on any day of the week.

"Ordinary time hourly rate of pay" shall be the hourly rate of pay paid to the employee. T1 refers to the ordinary time hourly rate of pay; T1.5 refers to one and a half times the ordinary time hourly rate of pay.

"Part-time employee" means an employee, other than a casual employee, who is employed on a permanent basis but works less than the ordinary or normal hours prescribed in this MECA. Any wages and benefits e.g. leave, will be pro rata according to the hours worked unless specifically stated otherwise in this MECA.

"Registered nurse" has the same meaning as in the Health Practitioners' Competence Assurance Act 2003 and its successors.

"Relevant Daily Pay" has the meaning as provided by the Holidays Act 2003.

"Service" means the current continuous service with the current employer.

"Shift work" is defined as the same work performed by two or more employees, or two or more successive sets or groups of employees, working successive periods.

"Temporary/Fixed Term Employee" means an employee who is employed for a specified limited term for a specified project, situation or event, or, for example, to replace an employee on parental leave or long term accident or sickness. There is no expectation of ongoing employment. Temporary agreements must not be used to deny staff security of employment.

6. Trial Period
A new employee may be employed on a trial period in accordance with section 67(a) of the Employment Relations Act 2000 and any subsequent amendments. Any trial period requires agreement between the new employee and the employer. Where a trial period is proposed, it shall be specified in the employee's letter of offer, which letter shall also advise the employee of the right to seek independent advice about the implications of this provision prior to agreeing to this trial period.

7. Hours of Work

The employer will endeavour to ensure safe staffing levels and appropriate skill mix in work areas.

7.1 The ordinary working hours of an employee employed full-time shall be either:
   (i) 75 or 80 per fortnight; or
   (ii) 37.5 or 40 per week; or
   (iii) The equivalent average in the case of a roster cycle exceeding a fortnight.

7.2 Employees will normally work 7.5 or 8 hours a day/shift in duration. Shifts shall be no less than 4 hours per day, except by mutual agreement between the employee and employer.

7.3 The times and days to be worked, and the duration of shifts shall be set by agreement between the employer and employee. Any change to the hours and/or days of work shall be by agreement between the employer and employee. Such agreement would not be unreasonably sought or withheld by either party where there are demonstrable employer or employee needs.

7.4 Where rosters are worked they will be published at least 14 days prior to the commencement of the roster. Changes in rosters, once posted, shall be by mutual agreement.

7.5 Except by mutual agreement, every employee shall have two periods of at least 24 hours off duty each week, and except in the case of emergencies or by agreement, these shall be consecutive.

7.6 Except by mutual agreement, no employee shall work more than seven days in a row. This does not include days attending training or professional development.

7.7 A minimum break of nine hours shall be allowed between rostered shifts unless mutually agreed between the employer and the employee.

7.8 Employees may exchange shifts or duties by mutual agreement and with the prior approval of the employer. In this case, no additional payment (such as overtime rates) will apply. Where an employee chooses to enter into a shift swap which results in that employee working less hours than their guaranteed hours for the period, it is recognised that the employee has chosen to forfeit a portion of their guaranteed hours of their own free will, and that time not worked is not required to be made up or paid by the employer.

7.9 Where the employer requires employees to attend classes of instruction or examinations the time spent shall be paid at the employee's ordinary time rate of pay but shall not count as time worked for the purposes of calculation of any overtime entitlements. Alternatively the employer and employee may agree to paid time in lieu instead of payment.

7.10 Duties, once commenced, shall be continuous unless otherwise agreed between the employer and the employee.
7.11 Additional Provisions for Employees working Alternative Rosters:

7.11.1 In specific instances, i.e. shifts of longer or variable lengths, the ordinary hours for a full-time employee are able to be averaged over a roster cycle of greater than one fortnight e.g.: an employee who works 12 hour shifts may work 120 hours over a 3 week roster and be considered to be full-time. No employee shall be required to work more than a 12 hour rostered shift.

7.11.2 Alternative hours of work may be implemented by agreement between the Employer and the employees directly affected. It is recognized employees have the ability to consult NZNO before such agreement is reached.

8. Meal Breaks and Rest Periods

8.1 Employees who work less than two hours in a day are not entitled to breaks.

8.2 Employees who work for two hours or more are entitled to a paid 10 minute rest break.

8.3 Employees who work for four hours or more are additionally entitled to an unpaid meal break.

8.4 Employees who work six hours or more in a day are entitled, within each working day, to two paid ten-minute rest breaks and an unpaid meal period of at least half an hour.

8.5 An employee who is unable to be relieved from work for a meal break shall be entitled to have a meal while on duty and this period shall be regarded as working time. The employee shall comply with the employer's policy as to where on the premises the meal may be taken.

8.6 During the meal break or rest breaks specified above, free tea, coffee, milk and sugar shall be supplied by the employer when the break is taken on the premises. This shall not apply when employees are working off site.

8.7 The employer shall ensure so far as practicable, given the employers operational requirements and resources, that appropriate facilities are to be provided in the workplace for an employee who wishes to breastfeed and that appropriate breaks are provided for this. Such breaks shall be unpaid unless otherwise agreed.

Translation to new scale:

As at the commencement of the 2013 MECA, the previous step 1 was removed from the medical receptionist/administration staff scale. Employees translate to the new scale as follows:

| 2017 scale |
| Step       |
| 2017 rate  |

| 3 | 20.36 | 3 | 21.38 |
| 4 | 21.34 | 4 | 22.05 |

Employees who translate onto step 1 of the new scale at the commencement of this agreement shall progress to step 2 in accordance with clause 9.2 (on their next anniversary date, unless they work 15 hours or less per week).

9.1.4 Coordinator / Lead Nurse / Nurse Team Leader or similar

Hourly rate of $35.50

This rate applies only to a Registered Nurse/Practice Nurse/Midwife appointed as a Co-ordinator / Lead Nurse / Nurse Team Leader or similar in a workplace employing three or more full time equivalent Registered Nurses/Practice Nurses/Midwives, to carry out supervisory, management and co-ordination duties additional to normal registered nursing/practice nursing/midwifery duties (as defined in the relevant job description). For the purpose of this sub clause a full time Registered Nurse/Practice Nurse/Midwife is a Registered Nurse/Practice Nurse/Midwife who normally works not less than 35 hours per week.

This rate only applies where an employee is formally appointed in writing by the employer to the position.

Note: This rate was introduced to the 2018 collective agreement and replaces the previous supplementary payment paid to employees appointed as... coordinators. An employee appointed as a coordinator prior to the commencement of this agreement, who receives an hourly rate plus a supplementary payment, shall instead receive an hourly rate, which shall either be this hourly rate, or the total of their former hourly rate and former supplementary payment, whichever is the higher.

2.1.5 All Inclusive Salary

Where the employer and employee have agreed on an all inclusive salary, the salary shall set to include compensation for agreed quantities of normal hours of work, overtime, hours to which penal rates apply, call backs and on-call duty, as applicable, and this should be specified in the letter of offer of employment.

9.2 Progression

Progression through all steps in each scale shall be by automatic increment on an employee’s anniversary date. Provided that an employee who ordinarily works 15 hours a week or less shall be entitled to advance to the next wages step only after two years of service to the employer.

9.3 Operation of Salary Scales

9.3.1 The salary scales above shall be applied to the respective groups of employees.

9.3.2 On appointment, the employer shall place employees on the appropriate step of the relevant scale, recognising the following factors:

(i) previous relevant nursing/midwifery post registration experience;
(ii) other relevant work and life experience;
(iii) the degree of difficulty in recruiting for specific skills and/or experience required for the position.

9.4 Overtime

9.4.1 Overtime is time worked in excess of seven and a half hours per day or eight hours per day or the rostered duty whichever is greater, or 75 hours or 80 hours per two week period, or 37.5 hours or 40 hours per week. Time that an employee is absent from work due to sick leave, annual leave, bereavement, or other paid or unpaid leave, or due to attendance at professional development, is not counted as time worked for the purposes of calculation of overtime.

9.4.2 Part Time Employees: Should a part time employee be required to work beyond the end of a full time shift for less than 30 minutes further, the employee shall be paid at their ordinary hourly rate. Should a part time employee be required to work beyond the end of a full time shift for 30 minutes or more, all of the additional time beyond the end of the full time shift is paid at one and a half times (1.5) the hourly rate of pay.

An employee working more than their usual hours of work on a weekly basis, but less than the full time ordinary hours as specified under Clause 7, is entitled to payment for the extra hours at their ordinary time rate (T1).
9.4.3 All overtime worked must be authorised by the employer prior to being undertaken.

9.4.4 Overtime shall be paid at one and one half times (T1.5) the hourly rate of pay.

9.4.4 Part-time Employees

(i) On a daily basis, should there be an arising issue of urgency that unexpectedly requires the employee to work a minimum of 30 minutes beyond a full-time shift as defined under Clause 7, then the additional time will be paid at one and one half times (T1.5) the hourly rate of pay.

(ii) Time worked beyond a full-time shift as defined under clause 7 but less than 30 minutes will be remunerated at T1 or times in lieu as agreed.

(iii) An employee working more than their usual hours of work on a weekly basis, but less than the fulltime ordinary hours as specified under Clause 7, is entitled to payment for the extra hours at their ordinary time rate (T1).

9.4.5 In lieu of payment for overtime the employer and employee may jointly agree for the employee to take equivalent (i.e. one hour overtime worked for one hour ordinary time off) paid time off work at a mutually convenient time.

9.4.6 Where the employer and employee have agreed on an all inclusive salary, specified additional time is deemed to be compensated in the all inclusive salary. Where the employee has worked additional hours in excess of the amount specified in the letter of offer of employment, the employee shall be entitled to take equivalent (i.e. 1 hour overtime worked for 1 hour ordinary time off) paid time off work at a mutually convenient time.

9.4.7 For those employees where superior entitlements exist, such entitlements shall be retained by the individuals concerned.

9.5 Penal Rates

9.5.1 Weekend rate - applies to ordinary time (other than overtime) worked after 1pm Saturday until midnight Sunday/Monday shall be paid at time one half (T0.5) in addition to the ordinary hourly rate of pay.

9.5.2 Saturday rate - applies to ordinary time (other than overtime) worked after 6am Saturday until 1pm Saturday shall be paid at quarter time (T0.25) in addition to the ordinary hourly rate of pay.

9.5.3 Public Holiday rate - applies to those hours which are worked on the public holiday. This shall be paid at time one half (T0.5) in addition to the ordinary hourly rate of pay. This payment should not be in addition to the provisions of clause 14.3. (See clause 14.3 for further clarification.)

9.5.4 Night rate - applies to ordinary hours of duty (other than overtime) that fall between 8pm and 6am from midnight Sunday/Monday to 6am Saturday and shall be paid at quarter time (T0.25) in addition to the ordinary hourly rate of pay.

9.5.5 Overtime and weekend/Saturday/public holiday or night rates shall not be paid in respect of the same hours; the higher rate will apply.
9.5.6 Where the employer and employee have agreed on an all inclusive salary, penal rates are deemed to be compensated in the all inclusive salary. Where the employee has worked hours to which penal rates apply in excess of the amount specified in the letter of offer of employment, the employee shall be entitled to take equivalent (i.e. 1 hour penal time worked for 1 hour ordinary time off) paid time off work at a mutually convenient time.

9.5.7 No existing employee who was employed immediately prior to the commencement of this agreement, and was receiving payment for hours where penal rates applied, shall take a drop in absolute total dollars per hour for the same hours worked on a shift by shift analysis as a result of clauses 9.5.1 to 9.5.5 above.

10. Call Backs

10.1 A call back only occurs where an employee who is on call is required to return to work. A call back does not include the situation where an employee who is not on call is asked to work and can choose to accept or decline the additional work.

10.2 Rate: Call-back is considered overtime and will be paid at the rates specified in clause 9.4, but penal rates will not apply.

10.3 Minimum Payment: An employee shall be paid for a minimum of two hours, or for actual working and travelling time, whichever is greater, when the employee:

(i) is called back to work after completing the day's work or duty, and having left the place of employment; or

(ii) is called back before the normal time of starting work and does not continue working until such normal starting time;

Where an employee has a second call-back which is commenced and completed within two hours of the commencement of the first call-back, only one call-back shall be paid. Where a second call-back is commenced within two hours of the first call-back, but is not concluded within the two hour period, the employee shall be paid continuously from the commencement of the first call-back to the conclusion of the second call-back.

10.4 Where an employee is "on-call" the allowance set out in Clause 11 below will be paid.

10.5 In lieu of payment for call back the employer and employee may jointly agree for the employee to take equivalent (i.e. one hour overtime worked for one hour ordinary time off) paid time off work at a mutually convenient time.

10.6 Where the employer and employee have agreed on an all inclusive salary, specified call-back time is deemed to be compensated in the all inclusive salary. Where the employee has worked call back hours in excess of the amount specified in the letter of offer of employment, the employee shall be entitled to take equivalent (i.e. 1 hour overtime worked for 1 hour ordinary time off) paid time off work at a mutually convenient time.

10.7 For those employees where superior entitlements exist, such entitlements shall be retained by the individuals concerned.
11. Allowances

For those employees where superior entitlements exist, such entitlements shall be retained by the individuals concerned.

11.1 On Call

11.1.1 There are times when the employees covered by this agreement are required to be on call to provide cover so that primary health services are able to be provided. In the interests of healthy rostering practices, the parties agree that the allocation of on-call time shall be spread as evenly as practicable amongst those required to participate in an on-call roster taking into account employer and employee needs.

11.1.2 Each employee shall be entitled to the on-call allowance of $26.00 per hour during which she/he is required to be on-call during what would otherwise be off-duty time.

11.1.3 The on call allowance is payable for all hours the employee is rostered on call including time covering an actual call out.

11.1.4 Unless by mutual agreement or in emergencies, no employee shall be required to remain on call for more than 40% of the employee’s off-duty time in any three-weekly period.

11.1.5 Where the employer and employee agree to an all inclusive salary, on call allowance will not apply. Where the employee is required to be on call in excess of the amount specified in the letter of offer of employment, the employee shall be entitled to take time in lieu equivalent in value of the allowances specified in clause 11.1.2.

11.1.6 If an employee is on-call they should be sober and drug free, available for work, and with their cell phone or pager switched on, have access to transport, and be in the area or within an agreed time period to commit to.

12. Professional/Educational Development

The employer and employee are committed to staff education and development. Employees will be actively encouraged to attend educational courses relevant to their professional/educational development and of benefit to the employer.

12.1 The employer shall grant professional/educational development leave of up to 40 hours per calendar year for full time employees (pro rated to no less than 8 hours per calendar year for part time employees). This leave is to enable employees to prepare a portfolio, complete qualifications, and to attend training relevant to their professional/educational development and relevant to the employer. Prior approval of the employer must be obtained. The approval of the employer shall not be unreasonably withheld.

12.2 An employee may take leave on pay to attend National Meetings or Seminars of Section Groups and/or Colleges of the NZNO. This leave may be charged against the professional/educational development leave as specified in subclause 12.1. Prior approval of the employer must be obtained. The approval of the employer shall not be unreasonably withheld.

12.3 All of the employee’s normal working hours absent from the practice for professional/educational development including travel time will be a claim against the hours as specified in subclause 12.1.
12.4 For those employees where superior entitlements exist, such entitlements shall be retained by the individuals concerned.

12.5 Paid meetings to meet organisational and service requirements not otherwise addressed in this clause (including staff meetings and training not related to the employee's occupation) shall be granted in addition to the above provisions.

12.6 Professional/educational development leave will be granted at T1 rate and shall not accumulate from one year to the next.

12.7 Where an employer requires an employee to attend professional/educational development, whether the employee is scheduled to work or not for the time of the leave, the employee shall be granted paid leave as per sub clauses 12.1, 12.3 and 12.6.

12.8 Only permanent employees, or fixed term employees who have a contract for six months or more, receive professional development leave. In the case of fixed term employees, this is prorated for the proportion of the year that the employee is employed for (for example, a nine month fixed term full time employment provides an entitlement of up to 30 hours during the period of fixed term employment). Fixed term employees who have a contract for less than six months do not have an entitlement to professional development leave, unless the employer has specifically agreed to provide this. Casual employees do not have an entitlement to professional development leave.

12.9 Professional Development and Recognition Programmes - Practice Nurses/Registered Nurses/Midwives/Enrolled Nurses

Where an employer has agreed in writing to a Nursing Council of New Zealand accredited programme the following shall apply:

14.3 When employees work on a public holiday they will be paid at time and a half the ordinary time hourly rate of pay ($11.50) for each hour worked. The employee shall also be granted an alternative holiday, if the day would otherwise be a working day for the employee. Such alternative holiday shall be taken and paid as specified in the Holidays Act 2003. This payment shall not be in addition to provisions in clause 9.5.3.

14.4 An employee who is on call on a public holiday as provided above, but is not called in to work, shall be granted an alternative holiday. In the case of a public holiday which is recognised on either a weekend day or a week day depending on the days the employee works, refer to the Holidays Act to identify whether the day in question constitutes a public holiday for that employee. Only one day is recognised for each public holiday.

14.5 Those employees who work a night shift which straddles a public holiday, shall be paid at public holiday rates for those hours which occur on the public holiday and the applicable rates for the remainder of the shift. The alternative holiday shall apply in respect to the day in which the majority of hours are worked.

14.6 Part time employees - Where a part-time employee’s days of work are fixed, the employee shall only be entitled to public holiday provisions if the day would otherwise be a working day for that employee. Payment will be relevant daily pay.

15.1 Employees, other than casuals, shall be entitled to 4 weeks annual leave, taken and paid in accordance with the Holidays Act 2003 and subject to the other provisions of this clause, except that on completion of six years recognised current continuous service with the same employer the employee shall be entitled to 5 weeks annual leave instead of 4.

15.2.5 Part time employees shall be entitled to annual leave on a pro rata basis.

15.2.6 An employee may anticipate up to one year’s annual leave entitlement at the discretion of the employer.

15.3 The Holidays Act provides that one week of the employee’s statutory annual leave may be "cashed up" in certain circumstances. The provisions of the Act, including the fact that the request must come from the employee, and the employer’s right to decline a request or to have a policy precluding cashing up, apply.

16. Sick Leave

The following Sick Leave provisions shall apply

16.1 After three months continuous employment a full time employee shall be entitled to ten (10) working days paid sick leave for the subsequent twelve months of employment, and an additional ten (10) working days for each subsequent twelve month period. The entitlement shall be pro-rated for part time employees except that a part-time employee shall receive no fewer than five (5) working days paid sick leave for the subsequent twelve months of employment and a minimum of five (5) additional working days for each subsequent twelve month period.

16.1.1 For those employees where superior entitlements exist, such entitlements shall be retained by the individuals concerned.

16.2 A medical certificate may be required to support the employee’s claim for sick leave. If a medical certificate is required for absence of less than three calendar days, then the employer shall meet the cost of that certificate.

16.3 The provisions of this clause are inclusive of the sick leave provisions of the Holidays Act 2003.

16.4 The employee can accumulate their sick leave entitlement up to a maximum of 30 days.

Any entitlement accrued prior to commencement of this agreement in excess of 30 days shall be retained but will not be increased until the balance falls below 30 days.

16.5 At the employee’s discretion an employee may be granted anticipated sick leave. Any leave taken in advance and still remaining outside the entitlement will be paid to the employer. Where an employee’s employment is terminated by either party prior to becoming entitled to anticipated sick leave the employer may deduct monies due from the final pay.
16.6 Sick leave may be utilised where the employee requires surgery or leave for health screening. Leave for this purpose may be taken in ½-day blocks. Sick leave may be utilised where the employee requires surgery or has an appointment for health services. As much notice shall be given by the employee as is practicable. The minimum period of sick leave that can be taken is one quarter of a day.

16.7 Domestic Leave The employer shall grant an employee leave on pay as a charge against sick leave entitlement when the employee must attend a sick dependent of the employee. This person would, in most cases, be the employee's child, spouse/partner or other dependent family member.

16.7.1 Approval is not to be given for absences during or in connection with the birth of an employee's child. Annual leave or parental leave should cover such a situation.

16.7.2 At the employer's discretion, an employee may be granted leave without pay, where the employee requires time away from work to look after a seriously ill member of the employee's family.

16.7.3 The production of a medical certificate or other evidence of illness may be required.

16.8 During periods of leave without pay, sick leave entitlements will not continue to accrue.

17. Bereavement Leave

17.1 An employee shall be entitled to a maximum of three days leave without loss of pay on each occasion of the death of the employee's spouse/partner, father, mother, brother, sister, child, grandparent, parents-in-law, grandchild, stepchildren, stepparents, stepbrother or any other close family/whanau/person in respect of whom the employer agrees that bereavement/teangaanga leave may be taken.

17.2 An employee shall be entitled to one day's leave without loss of pay on each occasion of the death of any other person, providing that the employer accepts that the employee has suffered a bereavement, taking into account the relevant factors set out in section 65(3) of the Holidays Act 2003.

17.3 If bereavement occurs while an employee is absent on annual leave, sick leave on pay or any other special leave on pay, such leave may be interrupted and bereavement leave granted in terms of clause 17.1 above. This provision will not apply if the employee is on leave without pay.

17.4 In relation to teangaanga and clauses 17.1 and 17.2 above, the employer shall consider these provisions in a culturally appropriate manner. The granting of time off and for how long shall be at the discretion of the employer.

17.5 The employer agrees that on application, it may be appropriate, to grant leave without pay in order to accommodate various special bereavement needs not recognised in clauses 17.1 and 17.2 above.

19.2 An employee called for jury service shall advise the employer as soon as practicable.

19.3 Where the employee is required to serve on a jury and the option of making application for exemption is not exercised, the employee shall be granted paid jury service leave of up to a maximum of 5 days. Any additional days beyond the first 5 days leave can be taken as annual leave or leave without pay.

19.4 While the employee is receiving paid jury service leave, the employee upon receipt of payment from the court for jury service shall pass this payment onto the employer but may retain expenses. Where annual leave or leave without pay is granted, or where work attendance is not affected by the jury service, the employee may retain the juror’s fees and expenses paid.

Where the employee is paid by the court via direct credit, the employee may provide evidence of the payment received for jury service to the employer so that the employer can deduct this amount from the employee’s pay rather than the employee having to pay the employer.

If the employee fails to reimburse the employer the juror’s fees received and fails to provide the evidence as to the court payment to authorise a deduction for the fees paid by the court, the employer shall be entitled to deduct the payment the employer made to the employee for the jury service attendance from wages due to the employee and the employee shall not be entitled to any payment from the employer for the time spent on jury service.

19.5 Any time during normal working hours when the employee is not required by the Court, the employee is to report back to work where this is reasonable and practicable.

19.6 Where an employee is required to be a witness in a matter arising out of their current employment, they shall be granted paid leave at the relevant daily pay. The employee is to pay any fee received to the employer but may retain expenses.

20.3 If an employee who has become entitled to a special holiday as above, leaves the employment before the holiday has been taken, payment for the holiday shall be made.

23.2.1 give the purpose of the entry; and

23.2.2 produce—

(i) evidence of his or her identity; and
(ii) evidence of his or her authority to represent the union concerned.

23.3 If a representative of a union exercises the right to enter a workplace and is unable, despite reasonable efforts, to find the employer or a representative of the employer or the person in control of the workplace, the representative must leave in a prominent place in the workplace a written statement of—

27. Consultation and Management of Change

27.1 Management of Change

27.1.1 Consultation between the employer, its employees and the union is essential on substantive matters of mutual concern and interest. Effective communication between the parties will allow for:
(a) Improved decision making
(b) greater cooperation between employer and employees; and
(c) a more harmonious, effective, efficient, safe and productive workplace.
The employer recognises the role of the employee’s staff delegate and the NZNO in assisting in the positive management of change.

27.1.2 Prior to the commencement of any significant change to staffing, structure or work practices, the employer will identify and give reasonable notice to employees who may be affected and to the NZNO to allow them to participate in the consultative process so as to allow substantive input.

27.1.3 Where an employer receives an indication of potential significant changes, they undertake to advise staff and the NZNO as soon as practicable of the possibility of these changes.

27.1.4 Where changes are deemed commercially sensitive to the employer, NZNO and the employees involved in the management of such change, shall meet with the employer and endeavour to reach agreement on any necessary and appropriate confidentiality.

27.2 Consultation
27.2.1 Consultation involves the statement of a proposal not yet finally decided upon, listening to what others have to say, considering their responses and then deciding what will be done. Consultation clearly requires more than prior notification.

27.2.2 The requirement for consultation should not be treated perfunctorily or as a mere formality. The person(s) to be consulted must be given sufficient opportunity to express their view or to point to difficulties or problems.

27.2.3 If changes are proposed and such changes need to be preceded by consultation, the changes must not be made until after the necessary consultation has taken place. Both parties should keep open minds during consultation and be ready to change. Sufficiently precise information must be given to enable the person(s) being consulted to state a view, together with a reasonable opportunity to do so — either orally or in writing.

27.2.4 Consultation requires neither agreement nor consensus, but the parties accept that consensus is a desirable outcome.

27.2.5 The consultation process will give employees affected, or likely to be affected, by any significant change to staffing, structures or work practise, and the NZNO organiser/delegate, the opportunity to put forward their views on any proposals or options developed for change prior to any final decision being made.

27.2.6 The process will generally include, but not necessarily be confined to the following:

(a) Management will meet with employees likely to be affected and the NZNO organiser/delegate to outline the possibility of change, looking at the current situation and the future, given the factors that could give rise for the change.

(b) Management will develop a plan or proposal specifying possible implications in relation to staffing changes.

(c) The plan or proposal will be circulated to employees likely to be affected and the NZNO organiser/delegate, with a request for feedback within a reasonable and specified timeframe. Alternative proposals or options should demonstrate that the objectives could be met. Management will meet with employees and the NZNO organiser/delegate for clarification of issues arising from the plan or proposal.

(d) Once feedback has been considered, management will make the final decision, and work with the NZNO organiser/delegate to finalise the implementation plan.

(e) It is agreed that consideration will be given and maintained in the employer's basic rights and obligations to operate the business in an efficient, businesslike, safe and professional manner.

28. Redundancy

28.1 For the purpose of this agreement, redundancy is defined as a condition in which the employer has staff surplus to requirements because of reorganisation or the closing down of all or part of the employer's operation.
28.2 The employer shall provide four weeks written notice of an impending redundancy to the affected employees and shall endeavour to re-deploy affected employees. The employer may elect to pay in lieu of all or part of the notice period.

28.3 During the period of notice, the employee shall be entitled to reasonable time off to attend interviews, seek alternative employment and to undertake counselling, by agreement with the employer, without loss of pay.

28.4 The employee made redundant shall be provided with a Certificate of Service stating that employment was terminated as a result of redundancy.

28.5 Except as otherwise provided in this clause, in the event that a permanent employee is declared redundant by the employer then the employer shall either:

28.5.1 Pay redundancy compensation of:
   (i) compensation for the first year of service or part thereof of 4 weeks salary (at the employees ordinary rate of salary at the date of termination without overtime or allowances) and
   (ii) compensation for each subsequent year of service or part thereof of 2 weeks salary (at the employees ordinary rate of salary at the date of termination without overtime or allowances);
   (iii) with the proviso that the redundancy compensation so calculated shall not exceed 14 weeks salary; or

28.5.2 An employer may arrange for the employee to be made a suitable alternative offer of employment by another employer, and where this is acceptable to the employee then no redundancy compensation shall be payable, providing that agreement by the employee shall not be unreasonably withheld; or

28.5.3 An employer may provide the employee with a period of notice of at least 6 months, and no redundancy compensation shall be payable.

28.5.4 Clause 28.1 sets out the circumstances in which redundancy compensation does and does not apply in the event of a new employer taking over the business.

28.6 A higher settlement than that specified in sub clause 28.5.1 above is not precluded.

28.7 Redundancy compensation or extended notice as provided by clause 28.5 shall not apply where:
   (i) an alternative position with the employer is available on the same or substantially similar terms and conditions including location, and with duties within the employee’s capabilities (some training may be required), which the employee elects not to take;
   (ii) an employee agrees to an alternative position with the employer, whether this is a similar position or not.

29. Employee Protection Provision

29.1 Where the employer is contracting out, selling or transferring all or part of the business, including the part of the business where the employee is employed, the following provisions will apply:

29.1.1 The employer shall endeavour to consult the employee about any proposal to sell all or part of the business or to contract out or transfer work before a final decision is made.

29.1.2 If the employer decides to proceed with the proposed restructure, it will negotiate with the new contractor/service provider with a view to endeavouring to have the new employer offer the employee employment on the same or substantially similar terms and conditions including location, and recognising service as continuous. The employee will be advised of timeframes for such negotiation and/or for the acceptance of any offer of employment and/or of any application process, in a timely manner.

29.1.3 The employee is entitled to choose whether or not to accept employment with the contractor/service provider. In the event that the contractor/service provider offers the employee employment in terms of 29.1.2 above, no redundancy situation will arise, and the employee will not be entitled to receive redundancy compensation or additional notice as specified in 28.5 above, whether or not the employee chooses to accept the offer of employment. The employee will be entitled to notice of termination with the employer as specified in this clause.

29.1.4 In the event that the contractor/service provider is not prepared to offer the employee employment in terms of 29.1.2 above, the employee will be entitled to notice of termination as specified in clause 38.1 and will remain entitled to the provisions of 28.5.

29.2 The provisions contained in this clause shall not apply where the employer is in receivership or in liquidation.

30. Confidentiality

30.1 As part of their normal duties, the employees will have access to confidential information concerning the employer and clients. This information may include, but is not limited to, business information, trade secrets, transaction details, business, employee or client records, and other confidential information relating to the employer, employees or clients.

30.2 Under no circumstances will an employee make use of, divulge or communicate confidential information to any person either during the term of this agreement or at any time after the termination of this agreement.

30.3 This shall not prevent registered health practitioners from making appropriate ethical/professional disclosures regarding individual patient clinical status and associated legal issues, in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy Act 1993. The registered health practitioner will notify the employer of such disclosures.

31. Policies and Procedures

31.1 All employees covered by the Agreement shall comply with the employer's policies and procedures in force from time to time, to the extent that such policies and procedures are not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

31.2 The employee will be consulted regarding any additions/amendments to those policies and procedures, where such additions/amendments have a material effect on employees' conditions of employment.

31.3 Vulnerable Children's Act 2014
Where employers are required under the Vulnerable Children’s Act 2014 to safety check employees who will have contact with children, the parties agree that all employees covered by this agreement may be required to undergo such checks as prescribed by Regulation. This may include both vetting and screening processes. An employee who refuses to participate in the required safety checks or who does not pass such required screening may have their employment terminated.

32. Safe Staffing and Healthy Workplaces

32.1 The employer parties to this collective agreement are committed to providing safe staffing and a healthy workplace to their employees.

33. Whanau/Family Friendly Policies

33.1 Employers and employees recognise the value of whanau/family and will endeavour to promote whanau/family friendly policies.

34. Health and Safety

34.1 The employer shall comply with the provisions of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 and subsequent amendments concerning safety, health and welfare matters. The parties to this agreement agree that employees should be adequately protected from any safety and health hazards arising in the workplace. All reasonable precautions for the health and safety of employees shall be taken.

34.2 It shall be the responsibility of the employer to ensure that the workplace meets required standards and that adequate and sufficient safety equipment is provided.

34.3 It shall be the responsibility of every employee covered by this agreement to work safely and to report any hazards, accidents or injuries as soon as practicable to their supervisor.

34.4 It is a condition of employment that safety equipment and clothing required by the employer is to be worn or used by the employee and that safe working practices must be observed at all times.

34.5 Attention is also drawn to the employer’s policies and procedures on health and safety.

34.6 Where there is an Employee Participation Agreement in place, the employer recognises that to fulfil their function health and safety delegates require adequate training, paid time and facilities.

35. Accidents and Injuries

35.1 Where an employee is incapacitated as a result of an accident, and that employee is on earnings related compensation, and has an entitlement to sick leave, the employer agrees to supplement the employee’s compensation by 20% of base salary during the period of incapacitation. This leave shall be taken as a charge against the employee’s sick leave entitlement. This shall only be applied when the employee requests to use their sick leave for this purpose.
36. Uniforms and Protective Clothing

36.1 Where an employer requires an employee to wear a uniform, it shall be provided free of charge, but shall remain the property of the employer. This sub clause does not apply in the event that the employee wears their own clothing within broad requirements such as wearing of certain colours.

36.2 Suitable protective clothing shall be provided at the employer's expense where the duty involves a risk of excessive soiling or damage to uniforms or personal clothing or a risk of injury to the employee.

36.3 Damage to personal clothing – An employee shall be reasonably compensated for damage to personal clothing worn on duty, or reimbursed dry cleaning charges for excessive soiling to personal clothing worn on duty, provided the damage or soiling did not occur as a result of the employee's negligence, or failure to wear the protective clothing provided. Each case shall be determined on its merits by the employer.

37. Payment of Wages

37.1 Employees will be paid weekly or fortnightly in arrears by direct credit. Where errors, other than overpayment, have occurred as a result of employer action or inaction, corrective payment must be made within three working days of the error being brought to the employer’s attention.

37.2 The employees shall complete timesheets as required by the employer. Wherever practicable any disputed items shall not be changed without first referring it to the affected employee.

37.3 The employer shall endeavour to direct credit payment of wages into the employee's bank account one clear banking day prior to a public holiday.

37.4 Where an employee has taken leave in advance of it becoming due, and the employee leaves before the entitlement has accrued, the employer will deduct the amount owing in excess of entitlement from the employee's final pay.

37.5 Deductions may be made from remuneration for any absence due to the default of the employee or for sickness in excess of paid sick leave entitlement or compensable accident. Any monies owed by the employee to the employer upon termination will be deducted from the employee's final pay.

37.6 In the event of an overpayment of remuneration the employer and employee shall agree on reasonable repayments by deduction from wages / salary, except upon termination where any remaining overpayment may be recovered in full from any monies owed by the employer to the employee. Where agreement cannot be reached following discussion, the employer may deduct the overpayment either in full or by way of instalments provided 10 working days notice is provided and that any single deduction will not exceed 5% of net pay.
38. Termination of Employment

38.1 Notice Period

Either party may terminate the employment agreement with four weeks written notice following correct procedure, unless otherwise agreed between the employer and employee. Agreement for a shorter notice period will not be unreasonably withheld. When the agreed notice is not given, the unexpired notice shall be paid or forfeited by the party failing to give the agreed notice.

This shall not prevent the employer from summarily dismissing any employee without notice for serious misconduct.

The employer may elect to pay in lieu of all or part of the notice period where the employer is terminating the employee's employment. Where an employee is resigning, the employer and employee may mutually agree that the employee will be paid in lieu of all or part of the notice period; this will only occur if both the employer and employee agree to it.

38.2 Abandonment of Employment

An employee absent from work for three consecutive working days without notification to the employer or without appropriate authorization from the employer will be considered by the employer as having terminated their employment without notice, unless the employee is able to show they were unable to fulfill their obligations under this section through no fault of their own. The employer will make all reasonable efforts to contact the employee during the three days period of absence.

39. Harassment Prevention

39.1 The parties recognise that harassment in the workplace is totally unacceptable. It is the responsibility of the employees to familiarise themselves with the relevant policy on harassment and the responsibility of the employer to communicate the extent of this policy and make it accessible to all employees.

39.2 Harassment can take many forms, including sexual harassment, bullying, racial harassment, violence and other forms of intimidating behaviour.

39.3 Harassment complaints will be taken seriously and the employer undertakes to address these with sensitivity and impartiality.

40. Resolution of Employment Relations Problems

An “employment relationship problem” includes:

(a) A personal grievance
(b) A dispute
(c) Any other problem relating to or arising out of the employment relationship but does not include any problem with negotiating new terms and conditions of employment.

Where an Employment Relationship Problem arises the parties will in the first instance seek to resolve it between the immediately affected parties. Further to this:

(a) The employee is entitled to seek representation at any stage during the process.

Help with an employment relations problem is available from within the work place
(employee manager) or outside the workplace (Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment 0800 20 90 20), or a union, an advocate or a lawyer.

(b) If the matter is unresolved either party is entitled to seek mediation from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment or refer the matter to the Employment Relations Authority. (Both mediation and investigation by the Authority are services available for the resolution of employment relationship problems.)

A "personal grievance" means a claim that an employee:

(a) has been unjustifiably dismissed; or
(b) has had his/her employment, or his/her conditions of employment, affected to his/her disadvantage by some unjustifiable action by the employer; or
(c) has been discriminated against in his/her employment; or
(d) has been sexually harassed in his/her employment; or
(e) has been racially harassed in his/her employment; or
(f) has been subjected to duress in relation to union membership.

If the employment relationship problem is a personal grievance, the employee must raise the grievance with the employer within a period of 90 days beginning with the date on which the action alleged to amount to a personal grievance occurred or came to the notice of the employee, whichever is the later.

Where any matter comes before the Authority for determination, the Authority must direct the matter to mediation in the first instance. Where mediation has failed or been deemed inappropriate in the circumstances, the Authority will then have the power to investigate the matter.

If the employment relationship problem relates to discrimination or sexual harassment, services available for the resolution of the problem include either application to the Authority for the resolution of this grievance or a complaint under the Human Rights Act 1993, but not both.

41. Deduction of Union Fees

41.1 The Employer shall deduct employee NZNO fees from the wages/salaries of employees when authorised in writing by members, and shall remit such subscriptions to the NZNO at agreed intervals.

42. No Pass On Provision

42.1 The employer parties to this collective agreement agree not to pass on automatically to non-NZNO members terms or conditions that are the same or substantially the same as those contained in this collective agreement.

This means that the employer and non-NZNO members shall individually negotiate their terms and conditions of employment.
