4. Matters Arising from Previous Minutes

It was noted that matters arising from the previous minutes including the Annual Report – Kawa Whakaruruhau, National Student and Te Rūnanga Tauira (TRT) representatives (Tracy Black and Dion Reid). It was noted that the Heads of Schools meet every July and this year was well attended. Points to note were lack of and erosion of cultural safely and bullying, this was the focus of TRT for 2019. The elections of Tracy Black and Tamarah Thomason-Tata nominations were received.

5. Annual Report

Tracy Black provided an update on the Chairperson's report. Key points for the report were:

- a. Thirteen (13) Te Rūnanga Tauira delegates actively working within their institutions, supporting and advocating for tauira. Delegates have been busy in the last 12 months. Tracy acknowledged all the hard work from the delegates and the members. Ngā mihi ki a koutou katoa.
- b. The Kaiwhakahaere, Tumu Whakarae, Te Poari Delegates and TRT leadership have attended pinning ceremonies and graduation ceremony. There has been positive feedback and more invitation are being sent to attend during the year. Celebrating the successes of the Māori tauira, this also aligns to NZNO strategic plan for increasing the Māori nurse.

- c. Monthly teleconference/FB calling with Te Rūnanga Tauira to keep everyone updated and informed.
- d. In 2018 the National Student Unit working groups focused on the NZNO strategy for nursing, NZNO rules and remits, nursing and midwifery student services directory. This year in 2019 the focus of National student working groups are postgraduate education funding, NZNO rules and remits, NSU survey and Kawa Whakaruruhau.
- e. TRT Leadership jointly led the Kawa Whakaruruhau working group to ensure that our voices are being heard on Multiple Platforms. Utilising Kai Tiaki to bring more exposure to the continuing erosion of cultural service and support across our nursing schools whilst identifying the positive outcomes of schools that offer strong cultural services and support to tauira. With the recent issue of Kai Tiaki, there have been reactions from several Heads of School, reaching out to their TRT delegates and beginning conversations around Kawa Whakaruruhau.
- f. TRT leadership had met the Associate Minister of Health (Māori Health)
 Honourable Penni Henare to discussion issues the Māori nursing tauira faced.
 The erosion of cultural safety and financial hardship were the main areas highlighted with the minister.
- g. Te Rūnanga Tauira remain steadfast to highlight student issues, advocate and support members. Te Rūnanga Tauira will continue to ensure that NZNO is a bicultural Organisation that is committed to supporting a relationship of not only equality but more importantly equity for its members.
- h. The Te Rūnanga Tauira leadership continue to be guided by the voices of our membership when advocating to make a change.
- i. The removal or erosion of culturally education, cultural services and cultural support within nursing schools.
- j. TRT leadership acknowledged the reports from members about bullying, this continues to be highlighted in student reports from peer to peer, lectures to students, preceptors to students, registered nurses to students.
- k. The safety of delegates is a high concern, some have reported that they have received direct and in-direct comments for speaking out about injustices within their schools. Delegates being treated negatively once lecturers know they're delegates of NZNO NSU. To support delegates TRT leadership have attended meeting in nursing schools.
- I. The work for the future Te Rūnanga Tauira will continue to ensure that NZNO and NSU are culturally responsive to their members. Tikanga Māori and the integration of Te Reo Māori needs to be an essential process in NSU. Sharing the knowledge of Te Ao Māori (Māori world view) is instrumental in influencing the adaptation of change, strengthening students to become culturally responsive now and in the future.
- m. Te Rūnanga Tauira will continue to highlight the erosion of Kawa Whakaruruhau on multiple media platforms and work with the Kaiwhakahaere Kerri Nuku and Te Rūnanga o Aotearoa to instigate change.
- n. Strengthen the nursing work force by recruiting a retaining more Māori into nursing.
- o. Increase participation of tauira in regional and Te Rūnanga hui.

- p. Succession planning is an on-going focus of Te Rūnanga Tauira, building more leader for the future. There are currently 14 delegates but 12 will be vacating their chairs after they sit state examinations in November. TRT Leadership had foreseen this situation and had been working with delegates to ensure succession of their positions.
- q. The NSU second face to face meeting for the year was at Pipitea Marae, on the first day we had the Kaiwhakahaere and President attend to meeting. On the 2nd day there was a presentation to all the heads of schools, all three working groups presented to about the progress of there working group. Nursing Council was attended, which gave everyone the opportunity to voice their concerns about the difference in curriculums, the erosion of cultural safety. NCNZ are currently reviewing there process and seeking feedback.

Questions from the floor included how to become a delegate, what support is available, curriculum for Māori run by Māori, vacant Te Rūnanga Tauira position at Massey University for two years. Tamarah Thomason-Tata offered to support the election process. Tracy Black and Tamarah-Tata answered the questions from the floor. In regards to the election process, this will be discussed further with the Kaiwhakahaere.

8. General Business

- a. Feedback from the floor was that it was an awesome hui today especially attending Ihumātao, a beautiful experience.
- b. It was highlighted that there continues to be concerns about bullying within the nursing schools, students are being faced with financial hardship, there is a need to change the perceptions of nursing students, continual erosion of cultural safety. It was agreed that these will be fed into the working plan for National Student Unit 2020 working plan.
- c. TRT leadership encouraged members over the next few days to come and have talk with them, if you are worried about anything or you have any questions about becoming a delegate. We are here if you need to talk about anything.

Tracy Black, Chair	Date

The meeting closed at 7.30pm with a karakia Whakamutunga.
