

DRAFT PROGRAMME

May 21-23 2020

Southern Pearls and other hidden gems

Thursday 21 May, 17:00-19:30 pm

Drinks and Nibbles

The Precinct Café Restaurant, Vogel St

Guest Speaker:

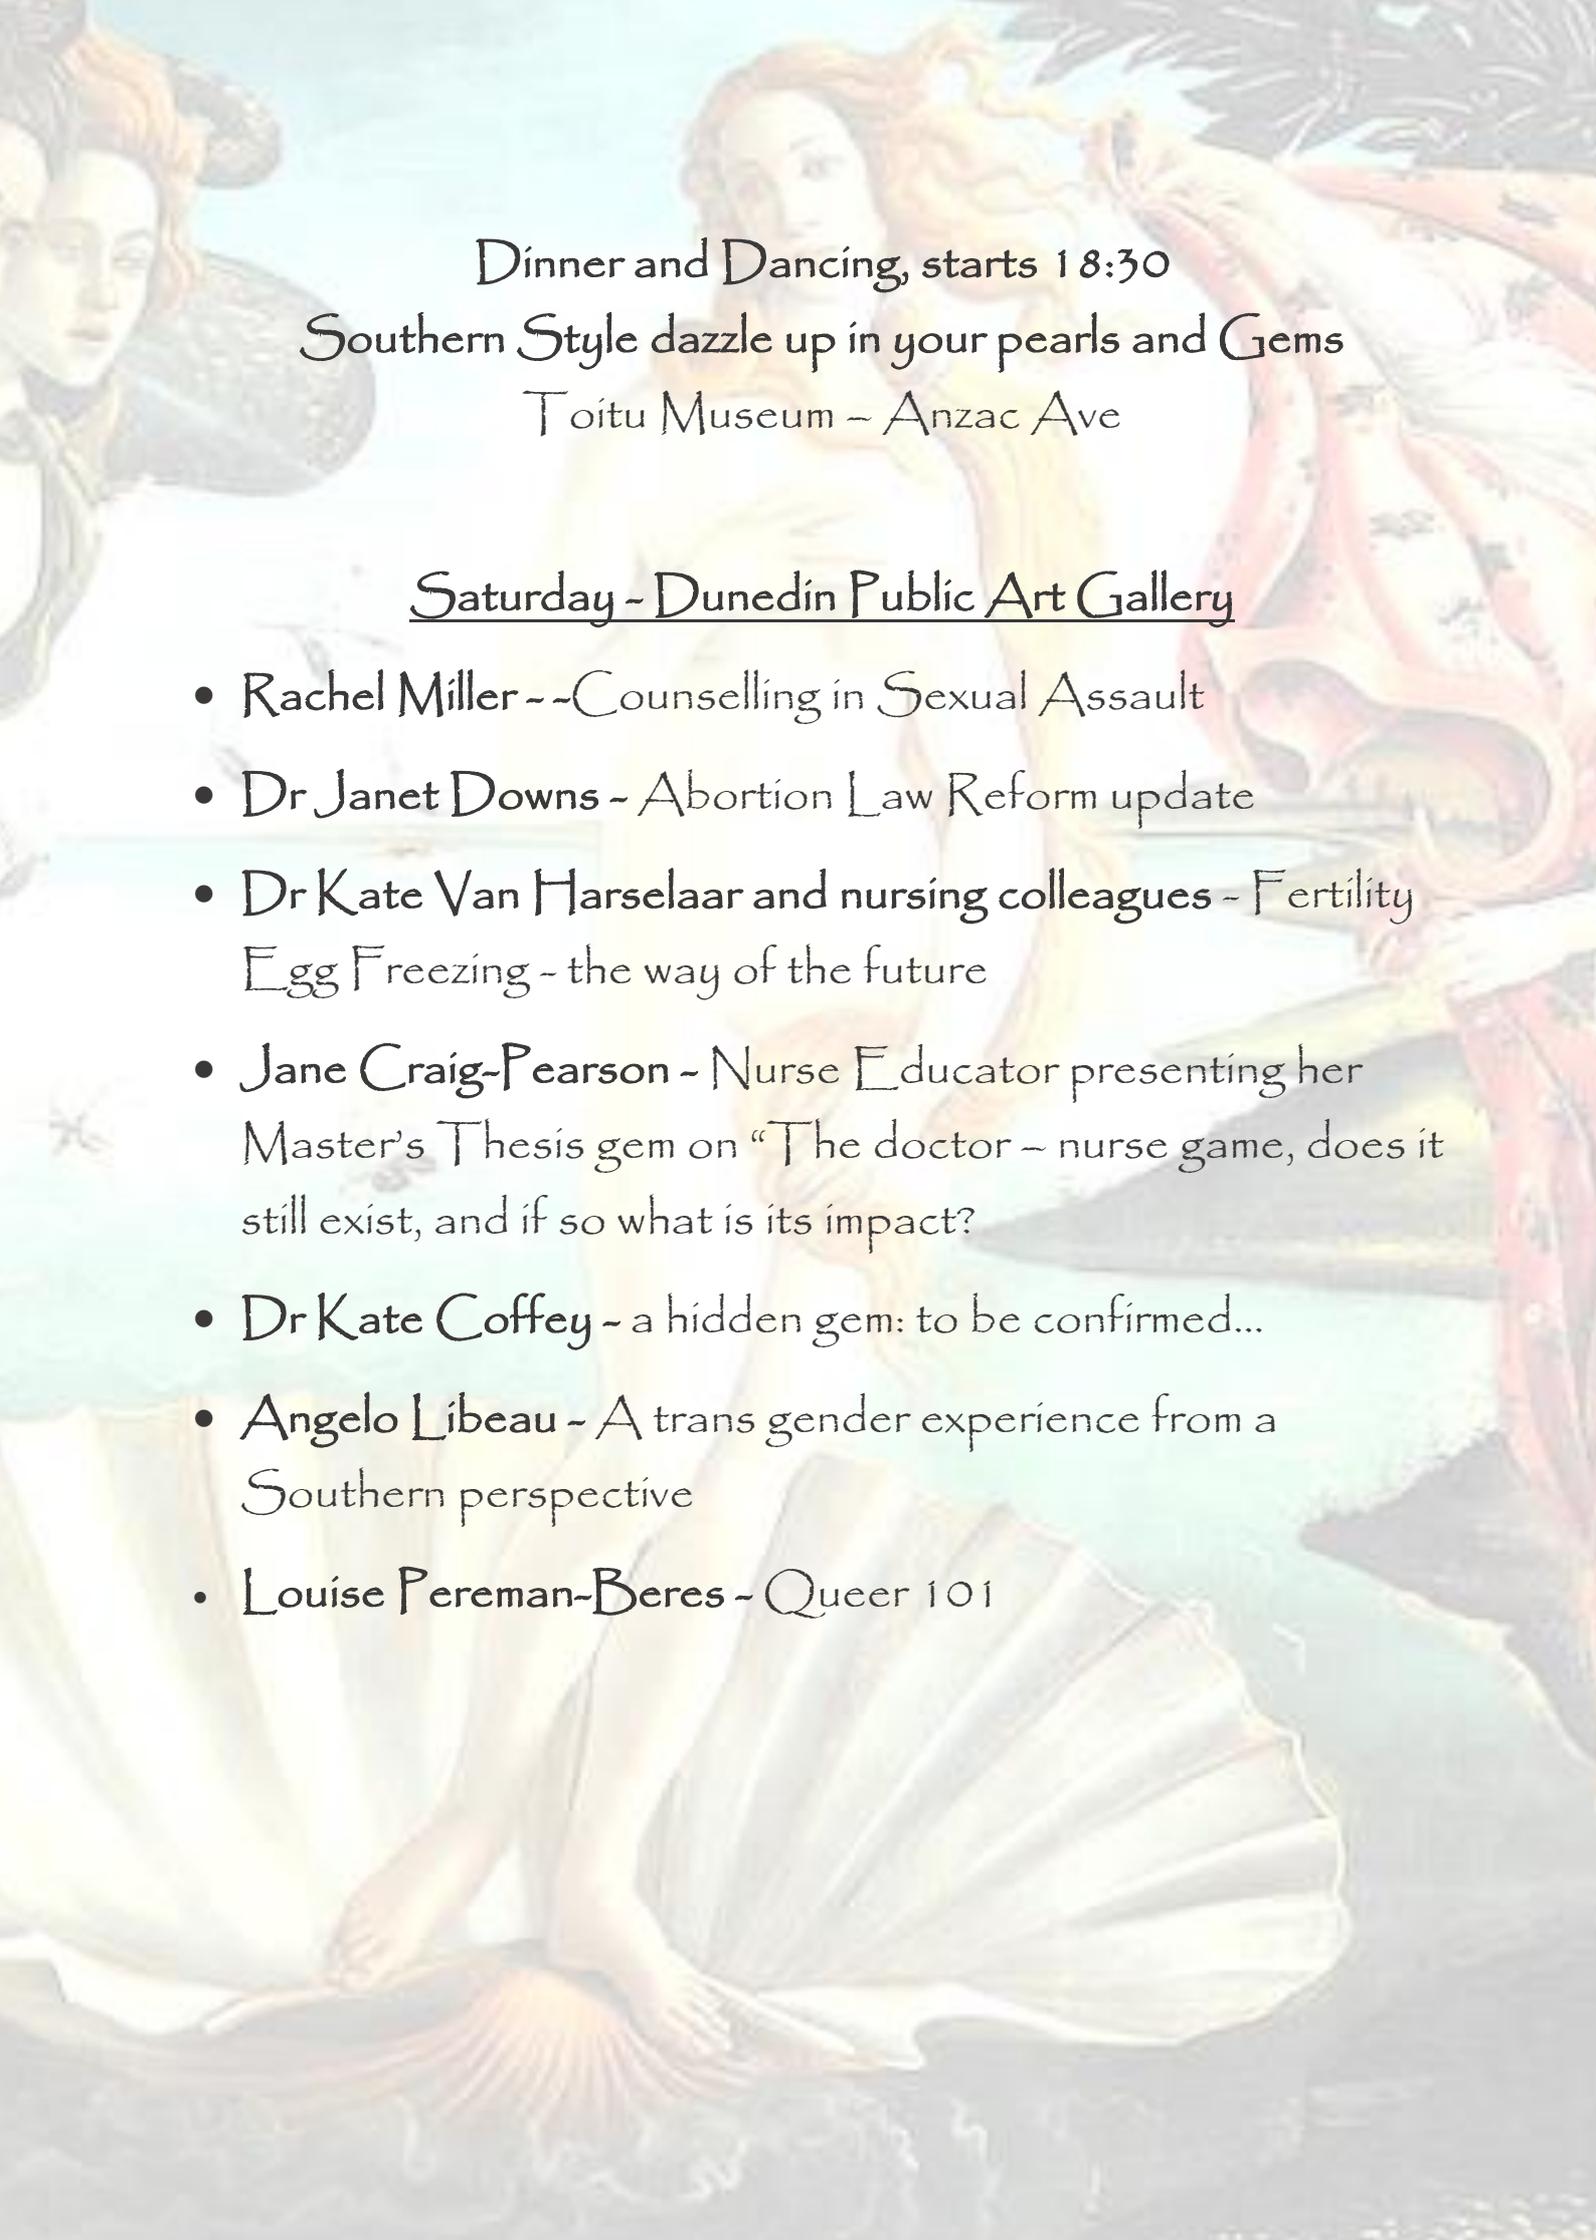

Emma Gilmour - Hidden Gem:

International Rally driver, a woman's experience in a man's world

Friday ~ Dunedin Public Art Gallery

Welcome and Mihi

- Amy Scott - local personality and Southern Pearl introduces communication styles and applying to the health system in a fun and interactive session,
- Alison Stewart-Piere - Current gems in Sexual Health
- Tash Crosby - Founder of Talk Peach
- Dr Simone Petrich - Breast and Vulva Pearls
- Assoc Prof Mike Stitely - The PP-19 a postpartum intrauterine insertion device: A Southern innovative gem
- Emma Macfarlane and Dr Helen Paterson - The Travelling Woman's Health Bus - A Primary health initiative
- Womens Health College, NZNO - AGM

Dinner and Dancing, starts 18:30
Southern Style dazzle up in your pearls and Gems
Toitu Museum – Anzac Ave

Saturday - Dunedin Public Art Gallery

- Rachel Miller --Counselling in Sexual Assault
- Dr Janet Downs - Abortion Law Reform update
- Dr Kate Van Harselaar and nursing colleagues - Fertility Egg Freezing - the way of the future
- Jane Craig-Pearson - Nurse Educator presenting her Master's Thesis gem on "The doctor - nurse game, does it still exist, and if so what is its impact?"
- Dr Kate Coffey - a hidden gem: to be confirmed...
- Angelo Libeau - A trans gender experience from a Southern perspective
- Louise Pereman-Beres - Queer 101