6 DUTIES

6.1 Flexibility

NZNO and Plunket acknowledge that Plunket is now operating in a rapidly changing and increasingly competitive service industry. In order to survive in this industry Plunket and Employees will have to continue to be flexible and adaptable. NZNO and Plunket are committed to consulting and co- operating in an effort to survive in the new environment.

Employees agree to undertake such duties as may be specified in their letter of appointment and position description or as may be from time to time reasonably required by Plunket.

7 WORKLOAD

- 7.1 Plunket will ensure that all Employees are allocated a workload that is equitable, reasonable, and safe in accordance with Plunket's Health and Safety guidelines.
- 7.2 All relevant work factors will be taken into consideration when assigning workload to an Employee such as complexity, resources available, and travel requirements.
- 7.3 Where an Employee has concerns about the allocation of workload, they need to raise this with their manager in the first Instance in order for it to be addressed.
- 7.4 Plunket supports flexibility in the workplace in order to achieve organisational requirements and outcomes. This takes into consideration Plunket's commitment to maintaining a work life balance.

8 CO-OPERATION, CONSULTATION AND MANAGEMENT OF CHANGE

8.1 Cooperation:

NZNO and Plunket accept that change in the health service is necessary in order to ensure the efficient and effective delivery of health services. They recognise a mutual interest in ensuring that health services are provided efficiently and effectively, and that each has a contribution to make in this regard.

Regular communication between Plunket, its Employees and NZNO is essential on substantive matters of mutual concern and interest. Effective communication between the parties will allow for:

- improved decision making
- greater cooperation between employer and employees; and
- a more harmonious, effective, efficient, safe, and productive workplace.

Plunket and NZNO agree that meetings will occur regularly between management and NZNO delegates. These meetings will enable effective operational and strategic communication and resolution of issues.

8.2 Consultation:

Prior to any organisational change that may impact on staff covered by this Collective Agreement, Plunket will give reasonable notice to NZNO and those employees who may be affected to allow them to participate in the consultative process so as to allow substantive input.

Consultation is:

- the statement of a proposal not yet finally decided upon,
- listening to what others have to say,
- considering their responses and then deciding what will be done, more than mere prior notification

8.3 Principles of Consultation:

NZNO and employees being consulted will be given sufficient opportunity to assess the information, express their view or to point to difficulties or problems, subject to the overall time constraints within which a decision needs to be made.

Sufficiently precise information will be given to enable NZNO, and employees being consulted to develop an informed response.

Plunket and NZNO will keep an open mind during consultation and be ready to change. Where changes are proposed, no changes will be made until after the necessary consultation has taken place.

Final decisions will be made by Plunket. Employees, NZNO and other stakeholders will be advised of the decisions in writing.

8.4 Management of change:

An organisational change situation occurs when:

- Changes are made to organisational structures.
- Employees' positions no longer exist.
- The nature of employees' work is significantly altered or
- Changes to the location of position(s) need to take place.

Where Plunket receives an indication of potential significant changes, they undertake to advise staff and the NZNO as soon as practicable of the possibility of these changes. Plunket recognises the role of the employee delegates and the NZNO in assisting in the positive management of change.

8.5 Process for managing change:

Each change situation needs to be managed in a way that:

- Meets the needs of the unique change situation.
- Achieves Plunket's strategic objectives.
- Ensures that the needs of employees are recognised and addressed where possible, and
- Employee's rights and entitlements are observed.

Where a decision has been made that will result in organisational change, Plunket will work with NZNO to develop procedures for management of the change that are in accordance with Plunket's legal obligations and its management of change policy, that supports but is not part of this Agreement. These procedures will normally include.

- Identification of employees in positions affected by change.
- A timetable for implementation.
- Provision of employee support.
- Placement of affected employees.
- Identification of options for unplaced employees

8.6 Review and Update of Job Descriptions

It is acknowledged that duties, responsibilities and job requirements from time to time may be altered or require updating, as processes, systems and other improvements are identified and implemented. It is also acknowledged that up to date and accurate job descriptions are an important communication tool within the employment relationship.

Where the nature of the employees' work is significantly altered then a management of change process will be followed as per clause 8.4.

Where the nature of the employees' work is not being significantly altered Plunket reserves the right to review and update job descriptions periodically to ensure they accurately reflect the duties, responsibilities, and requirements of each position within the organisation.

Prior to implementing any changes to job descriptions, Plunket will consult with the affected employees and NZNO to discuss the proposed updates and consider any feedback or concerns. Proposed updates will be provided in writing and employees and NZNO will be given a reasonable opportunity to provide feedback.

Plunket will provide written notification to employees of any changes to their job descriptions, along with a reasonable explanation of the reasons for the changes and how they impact the employee's role.

Updated job descriptions will be documented and maintained in the employee's file. Employees will have access to their current job description upon request.

In the event of a disagreement regarding changes to a job description, employees have the right to raise their concerns through the established 'raising other problems' procedure outlined in this agreement (Clause 49.2).

Plunket, NZNO and employees agree to work together in good faith to resolve any disputes promptly and fairly.

8.7 Introducing New Roles

Adherence to the Co-operation, Consultation and Management of Change clause (8) when introducing new roles. Specifically including the Nurse Prescribing and Nurse Practitioner roles.

Scoping and evaluation of a new Lactation Consultant role in consultation with NZNO that allows for the recruitment of persons who are not Registered Nurses but hold the International Board Certified Lactation Consultant (IBCLC) credential to hold this position. This will also ensure those who are undertaking Lactation Consultant work as the sole focus of their role, have a job description reflective of the work they are completing.

9. HOURS OF WORK

9.1 Standard Hours:

Plunket recognises the need to ensure that the hours employees work do not adversely affect them or their partner, family and/or dependants. It is important that there is a relationship of trust and accountability between Employees and their manager to ensure that Plunket is able to operate to meet changing business and customer needs and Employees are able to meet their responsibilities outside work.

- a) Unless at the request of the employee, and with the approval of the employer, an employee's two days off shall be consecutive;
- b) The hours of work shall be continuous unless otherwise mutually agreed.

However, an employee and their manager may agree to individual working hours arrangements, with such arrangements recorded in writing. In addition, employees may be able to vary start and finishing times on a flexible basis over a standard fortnight, subject to agreement with their manager and having regard to business need. Unless given prior approval by their manager, a full-time employee working on a flexible basis will not work less than 5 hours, or more than 10 hours in any one day.

- d) The hours of work may be worked on Monday-Saturday inclusive.
- e) An employee's days of work may not be changed unless it is mutually agreed in writing.

(d) More than eight hours:

The same breaks as specified in (c) and the breaks specified in (a) and (b) as if the employee's work period had started at the end of the eight hour.

Note that the above work periods are deemed to be inclusive of all authorised rest breaks and meal breaks.

PlunketLine nurse employees who work the night shift (11pm - 7am) and are unable to be relieved so that they can have a meal break shall be entitled to have a meal while on duty and this period shall be regarded as working time paid at the appropriate rate (i.e., the rate payable at that time).

40 WORKING WITH VOLUNTEERS

- 40.1 An important element of Plunket is the fact that it is made up of a substantial voluntary arm. Plunket and NZNO acknowledge that without the co-operation, assistance and support of the volunteer arm Plunket would be unable to achieve the goals set out in its mission statement.
- 40.2 Because working together with the volunteer arm is an integral and important component of employment for all employees, all employees undertake to work in partnership with volunteer members of the Plunket Trust and with any other person who may offer their service on a voluntary basis. Plunket and NZNO acknowledge that the same level of cooperation, assistance and support is required from Members of the Trust.

Whilst Plunket may not be able to cover all expenses it endeavors to support employees with additional professional development as much as is affordable. This may mean a combination of or one of the following provisions: paid time off, paid attendance at the course, paid travel, and accommodation.
- 41.7 CPR training will be provided from 1 October 2019 when all staff have access to Te Mara - Plunket's learning management system. 49 EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP PROBLEMS

49.1 Definitions

Employment Relationship Problem - includes a personal grievance, a dispute, and any other problem relating to or arising out of an employment relationship but does not include any problem with the fixing of new terms and conditions of employment.

Personal Grievance - means a claim of unjustifiable dismissal, unjustifiable disadvantage (where the employee claims that her/his employment, or her/his conditions of employment, has been affected to her/his disadvantage by some unjustifiable action by the employer), discrimination, sexual or racial harassment, or duress in relation to membership or non-membership of a union or employee's organisation.

Dispute - means a dispute about the interpretation, application, or operation of an employment agreement.

49.2 Raising a Personal Grievance or Other Problem:

If an employee considers he/she has a personal grievance the employee must raise the grievance with Plunket making Plunket aware of the personal grievance that the employee wants to have addressed. The employee is entitled to seek advice and assistance from an NZNO representative in raising and discussing the problem. The employee shall have the opportunity of having an NZNO delegate or NZNO official present at any meeting with the employee. All employees shall be entitled to raise a personal grievance claim of unjustified dismissal regardless of whether or not an employee has been employed for more than 90 days. Should it be found that there has been an unjustified dismissal, reinstatement shall be the primary remedy.

An employee must raise the personal grievance within 90 days after the action complained of, or the date the employee became aware of it, unless the employer consents to the raising of a personal grievance after the expiration of that period or is given leave to raise the personal grievance after the expiration of that period by the Authority (as outlined in s114 of the Employment Relations Act 2000)

For any other employment relationship problem, an employee should advise Plunket of the existence and nature of the problem, as soon as practicable and that the employee wants something done about it.

Effective from 13 June 2023 the Employment Relations (Extended Time for Personal Grievance for Sexual Harassment) Amendment Act, allows employees more time to raise a personal grievance, rising from 90 days to 12 months. For all other personal grievances, the time to notify the employer is unchanged at 90 days.

If the employment relationship problem cannot be resolved by discussion between Plunket and the employee, then either party may request assistance from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment who may provide mediation services. This may include:

- provision of information or explanation as to where information can be found by way of telephone, fax, email or internet.
- provision of information through pamphlets, brochures, or booklets
- specialist services, including mediation hearings and meetings.

If the problem is not resolved by mediation, an employee may apply to the Employment Relations Authority for investigation and resolution. In certain circumstances, the employee(s) will be able to appeal to the Employment Court and the Court of Appeal if they are unhappy with the outcome at the Employment Relations Authority.

- 51.4 An NZNO representative may enter a workplace for one of these purposes if the representative reasonably believes that an NZNO member to whom the purpose relates either is working or normally works in the workplace.
- 51.5 Purposes related to NZNO's business include;
- a) discussing NZNO business with NZNO members;
 - b) recruiting employees as NZNO members; and
 - c) providing information on NZNO and NZNO membership to any employee on the premises.

- 51.6 An NZNO representative may enter a workplace for one of these purposes if the NZNO representative reasonably believes that NZNO's membership rule covers an employee who is working or who normally works in the workplace.
- 51.7 An NZNO representative may only enter a workplace at reasonable times, in a reasonable way and in compliance with Plunket's safety, health and security procedures. Upon entering the workplace, the NZNO representative is obliged to make reasonable efforts to find the person in charge. An NZNO representative must, at this time and at any later time if requested by Plunket, tell Plunket the purpose of the entry and provide evidence of identity and authority to represent NZNO. If the NZNO representative is unable to find an appropriate person, he or she must leave a written statement containing this information, together with a note of the time and date of entry.
- 51.8 Plunket recognises that it may not unreasonably deny an NZNO representative access to a workplace.

52 MEETINGS

52.1 NZNO Meetings

Employees shall be entitled to four hours paid time off scheduled work to attend meetings, in a calendar year, for the purposes of discussing employment agreement matters. Plunket must be consulted regarding any request for such a meeting during the term of this agreement by NZNO giving Plunket at least 14 days' notice of the day and times of such meetings. NZNO will consult with Plunket to make any necessary arrangements to ensure that sufficient NZNO members remain available during the time of any such meeting to enable normal operations to continue.

An employee's NZNO representative will be able to attend such meetings referred to in this clause. The provision of this clause shall be inclusive of any legislative entitlement to paid union meetings.

- 53.2 Plunket will allow reasonable paid time off at ordinary time with prior approval for recognised delegates to attend meetings with management, consult with NZNO members and NZNO officials, to consult and discuss issues such as management of change, staff surplus and to represent employees.

54 SUPERANNUATION

- 54.1 Where an employee is a member of KiwiSaver scheme under KiwiSaver Act 2006, the employer will make an employer contribution to that scheme to all employees who contribute, matching the employee's contribution dollar for dollar, up to a maximum of 3% of the employee's total gross earnings (unless a higher employer contribution is required by law).

Schedule 1 - Plunket Staff Redundancy Agreement

BETWEEN Royal NZ Plunket Trust - ("Plunket")

AND

The NZ Nurses Organisation ("NZNO")

WHEREAS Plunket has determined to examine its operation, because of funding constraints

WHEREAS Plunket and NZNO have reached agreement as to the terms and conditions of the redundancies and wish to record the agreement in writing.

The Parties Agree As Follows:

- a) Plunket and NZNO recognise that loss of employment is a serious matter for those involved.
- b) Employees indicating a preference for voluntary redundancy will be given first consideration for redundancy where that action will meet the ongoing employment and management needs of Plunket.
- c) Plunket must provide one month's notice of redundancy to NZNO and the employee of any impending redundancy situation.
- d) Employees may work out their notice or alternatively they may take wages in lieu of notice, subject to operational requirements of Plunket.
- e) If employees work out their notice, they will be given time off to attend interviews for alternative employment without loss of pay.
- f) Employees made redundant shall be provided with a certificate of service stating that employment was terminated as a result of redundancy.
- g) Plunket shall supply suitable redundancy counselling services for any employees requiring such services.
- h) Employees will receive a pro-rata redundancy payment for any loss of more than 7 hours from a re-established position gained through the restructuring process.

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Employees made redundant shall be entitled to receive compensation payments calculated to their length of service based on the following scale:

- For the first year of service - six weeks pay based on their average earnings for the last 12 months.
- For each subsequent year of service or part thereof - two weeks pay based on their average earnings for the last 12 months
- The maximum payment that any employee is entitled to receive by way of redundancy compensation is limited to 33 weeks.

Schedule 2 - NZNO/Plunket Engagement Forum

The NZNO/Plunket Engagement Forum replaces the previous Strategic Working Group and the National Healthy Workplace Group in that the functions of these groups will be included in the NZNO/Plunket Engagement Forum

The membership of the group will comprise Plunket representatives and NZNO representatives (2 Organisers, 1 Professional Nurse Adviser and 4 delegates - being the NOC delegate, a Senior Nurse delegate and 2 others)

The agreed work plan will include:

- Discussion and potential strategies for ensuring that Plunket services are operating as effectively and efficiently as possible whilst maintaining the delivery of a quality service while recognising Plunket's organisational constraints.
- Acknowledging there needs to be an appropriate work-life balance for employees. This will include discussion on managing workload within the agreed hours of work and appropriate cover for leave.

Family / Domestic Violence

Plunket believes that all families in New Zealand have the right to live in violence free environments and recognises that employees sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal life. Plunket has developed a 'Supporting Plunket People Affected by Domestic Violence' policy that outlines Plunket's commitment to supporting Plunket people who are impacted by family or domestic violence and that guides the response of Plunket managers to such situations.

Pay Review

The parties acknowledge that the adjustments to pay in this Collective Agreement do not meet pay parity with the Te Whatu Ora Collective Agreement. Should Plunket receive additional funding from Te Whatu Ora to partially or fully address pay equity/pay parity matters effective during the term of this Collective Agreement, the parties agree that an urgent change would be needed to the Collective Agreement during its term, and that this would require a variation to the Collective Agreement in accordance with Clause 2 of this Collective Agreement.
