Vol. 25 No. 8
SEPTEMBER 2019

THIS MONTH’S issue has a focus on mental health, includes a photo essay of the indigenous nurses’ hui, gauges reaction to the independent review of the 2017/18 district health board multi-employer collective agreement (DHB MCA) bargaining, previews the special general meeting on the president’s tenure and looks at the health needs of migrant viticultural workers.

Kai Tiaki Nursing New Zealand is the official journal of the New Zealand Nurses’ Organisation, Tôpútanga Tapuhi Kaitiaki o Aotearoa. Views expressed are not necessarily those of NZNO. Kai Tiaki Nursing New Zealand, under a variety of titles, has been published continuously since 1908.

Kai Tiaki Nursing New Zealand is a peer-reviewed journal. All clinical practice articles are independently reviewed by expert nurses/researchers (see below). It is indexed in the Cumulative Index to Nursing and Allied Health Literature and International Nursing Index.
